for school groups

April 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 at 9:30am and 12 noon

April 8 at 11:00am and 2:00pm

A young star voyager named P-T-III crashes his spacecraft on a bleak and forbidding planet ruled by the dreaded Starblasters. With only 60 minutes to escape, he encounters a nervous space dragon, a floating Moon Valley girl, two vaudevillian computer robots named Bleep and Blip, some teen-aged space greasers and finally, the awesome Mother Space. Anyone who has ever looked at a star and used his or her imagination will love this delightful musical!

You've got to be on time or you'll miss the opportunity to see this funny, high energy musical! Ten time-oriented scenes feature such hits as Time's Up (a humorous melodrama featuring a lady in distress, a villain, a hero and a train crew); I'd Like To Tell Time a Thing or Two (a humorous nightmare about telling time, featuring a child, Father Time and nightmare clocks); and Quality Time (a final production number featuring an all-cast kick line). The clock is ticking - don't miss out!

Set in the 1980's, Fame The Musical focuses on the hopes and dreams of a group of students at New York's High School of the Performing Arts. The musical chronicles their 4-year odyssey from audition to graduation at the school whose unofficial motto is "Fame costs and this is where you start paying."

MOON OVER BUFFALO

By Ken Ludwig

October 6, 7, 13, 14 at 8:00pm
October 15 at 2:00pm

This side-splitting farce pokes into the disjointed world going backstage as Charlotte and George Hay try to find enough common ground to make it through their performance of The Scarlet Pimpernel. Their guiding light? Charlotte's deaf mother who manages the theatre.
